Dear Mark:

I am returning your charts herewith and also including the most recent chart entitled "Organization Under New Executive Order." I think you will find the new chart helpful to you particularly in terms of understanding which offices and directorates work exclusively for the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and which work for the Director in his capacity as Director of National Intelligence. You will note that the independent offices have been typed in and that I have marked two of them as being blue (i.e., exclusively as working for CIA). The other four offices serve the Director in both of his capacities.

I am sorry to say that I do not have a chart with the kind of office breakdowns that you are looking for within the various directorates.

I hope this will be helpful to you.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

Assistant Legislative Counsel

Organization Under New Executive Order

1. The Deputy Director for Resource Management is the principal adviser to the DCI on all matters relating to the National Foreign Intelligence Program (NFIP) budget prior to its presentation to the President and Congress. He will ensure the DCI has full access to relevant information and will conduct audits and evaluations as necessary. He will also assist the DCI in arriving at budget recommendations and will oversee the execution of the budget once it is approved.

2. The Deputy Director for Collection Tasking is the principal adviser to the DCI on all collection efforts within the Intelligence Community. He is responsible for assigning, through the National Intelligence Tasking Center, (NITC), which he heads, intelligence collection objectives and tasks to all intelligence elements of the Intelligence Community. He establishes priorities for tasking national intelligence collection systems in response to the production priorities set by the National Foreign Assessment Center. Through the NITC, he ensures dissemination of the information collected.

3. The Deputy Director for National Foreign Assessment is the principal adviser to the DCI on the production of national intelligence, both as to how it is accomplished and what it contains. He is responsible for organizing national efforts to assess and evaluate foreign intelligence data in support of national intelligence objectives as established by the National Security Council. He is the Director of the National Foreign Assessment Center and oversees the production of that Center. He also monitors product quality and evaluates product responsiveness.

4. The Deputy Director for Administration is responsible for supporting administratively those Intelligence Community components under the jurisdiction of the DCI as well as performing other tasks as assigned. He will continue to serve all his assigned functions as the Deputy Director for Administration of the CIA.

5. The Deputy Director for Operations and the Deputy Director for Science and Technology will continue to serve all their presently assigned functions for the Central Intelligence Agency.

Dear [Redacted]

Enclosed are the charts we discussed today on the telephone. The chart labelled Appendix B.9 is the new one drawn up on the basis of our current information. I would like its accuracy checked. Furthermore, I would appreciate knowing if the sub-offices for DDI/NFAC, DDS&T and DDA as shown in the chart from the committee print are accurate, and can these be updated for the new chart.

Thanks very much for your assistance.

Sincerely

Mark
